Warren Wilkinson joins Loop Cold Storage Co.

McAllen, Texas – Loop Cold Storage is pleased to announce that Warren Wilkinson has joined the Company as CEO. In this capacity he will be responsible for directing the operations of Loop Cold Storage, Embassy Packing and Loop Fresh Produce together with Judson Anderson who serves as President. The ownership of the Company will remain with the McGuire Family and Jack McGuire will serve as Chairman.

Warren has served the Company for many years as President of Loop Cold Storage from 1995 to 2000. He has also been a Director of the Company. Jack McGuire said, “I have been considering stepping down for a few years. Warren is very familiar with the Company and its operations. We have an excellent management team and we are enthusiastic about Warren’s decision to join Loop and lead the Company through its next growth phase”.

Before returning to Loop, Warren was a partner and Executive Vice President of Sigma Solutions, Inc., a Data Center Consulting firm based in San Antonio, Texas.

About Loop Cold Storage

Since 1981, Loop Cold Storage has operated as a public refrigerated warehouse (PRW) in McAllen, Texas. From its strategic location only minutes from the US – Mexico border crossing, the company manages a 326,000 square foot freezer distribution center and 93,000 square feet of fresh produce cooler space. In conjunction with the warehouse operations, an affiliated company - Embassy Packing Inc., empowers companies with the ability to package branded and private label food products “just-in-time” for sale to supermarket chains and foodservice distributors.
